

I am very against changing the limits of broadcast ownership. For such sweeping change of regulation, there has hardly been any news coverage on this topic. The only place I heard about it is PUBLIC television! For a person who reads the newspaper and watches the news everyday, this scares me. I would hate to think what will happen to the industry with even less regulation.